

punish offenses against its laws committed therein and to protect, regulate, control and dispose of any property of the state therein.

(2) That the consent of the state to the acquisition by the United States of any property or right or interest therein for any authorized national purpose may be given by the concurrence of a majority of the members of the Land Exchange Commission created by the Constitution of the State of Minnesota.

(3) That in case of acquisition by purchase or gift, consent shall be obtained prior to the execution of any instrument conveying the lands involved, or any interest therein, and in case of condemnation, prior to the commencement of any proceeding therefor.

(4) Grants the consent of the state to the acquisition by the United States in any manner, of any land or right or interest therein required for custom houses, court houses, hospitals, sanatoria, post offices, prisons, reformatories, jails, forestry depots, supply houses or offices, aviation fields or stations, radio stations, military or naval camps, bases, stations, arsenals, depots, terminals, cantonements, storage places, target ranges or any other military or naval purpose of the United States, and cedes to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over lands acquired for such purposes, with the right reserved to serve civil and criminal process of the state courts. Whenever the premises acquired shall abut navigable waters, the jurisdiction ceded shall include the under water lands adjacent thereto lying between the line of the low water mark and the bulkhead or pierhead line as now or hereafter established.

(5) Provides that the consent of the state given pursuant to the provisions of the act shall be evidenced by certificate of the governor which shall be issued in duplicate under the great seal of the State and which shall set forth a description of the property, the authority for, purpose of and methods used in acquiring the same, and when necessary for proper identification, a map may be attached to said certificate. One duplicate of said certificate shall be filed with the Secretary of the State and the other shall be recorded in the land records of the county where the land is situated.

MINNESOTA CASES: Storaasli v. Minnesota, 283 U. S. 57, 75 L. ed. 839, 51 S. Ct. 354; 31 Atty. Gen. 263.

MISSISSIPPI

By Sections 6055-7, Chap. 153, Mississippi Code, 1930, Annotated, the consent of the State is given to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, condemnation or otherwise of any land within the State which has heretofore been or may hereafter be acquired for custom houses, post offices or other public buildings. Jurisdiction is expressly ceded to the United States over lands so acquired, with the right reserved to serve civil and criminal process of the State courts. (Mississippi Laws, 1928, Chap. 4, page 85.)

MISSOURI

Sections 11072-3, Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1929, consent to the acquisition by the United States by purchase or grant of any land which has been or may hereafter be acquired for the purpose of establishing and maintaining post offices, internal revenue and other Government offices, hospitals, sanatoria, fish hatcheries, game and bird preserves, and lands for reforestation, provided that said lands shall not exceed twenty-five acres in any one lot or parcel in any town or city, and shall not exceed two thousand acres in any one county. Jurisdiction is expressly ceded over lands so acquired with the right reserved to serve civil and criminal process of the State courts. Recodified in Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1939, Section 12691, et seq.

MISSOURI CASES: Coffman v. Cleveland Wrecking Co., 24 Fed. Sup. 581; Hill v. Ring Const. Co., 19 Fed. Sup. 434; Jewell v. Cleveland Wrecking Co., 28 Fed. Sup. 364; Mesner v. Cleveland Wrecking Co., 25 Fed. Sup. 763.

MONTANA

By Article II of the Constitution of Montana, authority is granted to and acknowledged in the United States to exercise exclusive legislation as provided by the Constitution of the United States over the military reserva-